

Legal Aid of North Carolina, Inc.

Administrative Office

224 South Dawson Street - 27601 • P.O. Box 26087 • Raleigh, North Carolina 27611
919.856.2564 • Fax 919.856.2120

Serving low-income clients in all 100 counties of North Carolina

George R. Hausen, Jr., Esq.
Executive Director

www.legalaidnc.org

August 22, 2007

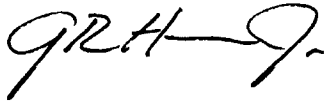

Mr. Guy Lescault, Esquire
Program Counsel
Legal Services Corporation
3333 K Street, NW, 3rd Floor
Washington, DC 20007-3522

LEGAL SERVICES CORP.
2007 AUG 25 AM 3:12
RECEIVED

Dear Mr. Lescault:

Enclosed please find an executed copy of the PAI Resolution adopted by the Legal Aid of North Carolina's Board of Directors at its June 15, 2007 meeting, as requested.

Respectfully,

George R. Hausen, Jr.

GRHjr/phs

Enclosure

RESOLUTION OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF
LEGAL AID OF NORTH CAROLINA

In Support of Enhanced Private Attorney Involvement with LSC-Funded Programs

Whereas, the Legal Services Corporation and the programs it funds, including Legal Aid of North Carolina, have long recognized that the overarching values of private attorney involvement to LSC-funded programs are increased access, increased human and capital resources, and increased pro bono commitment; and

Whereas, at its April 2007 meeting, the Board of Directors of the Legal Services Corporation adopted Resolution 2007-003 supporting and encouraging private attorney involvement and urging governing boards of LSC-funded programs to collaborate with other organizations to effectively engage lawyers in pro bono representation and other services that benefit low-income persons; and

Whereas, the LSC Board of Directors resolution builds upon the following national LSC initiatives:

- The October 2005 LSC report, Documenting the Justice Gap in America: The Current Unmet Civil Legal Needs of Low-Income Americans, which found that 50 percent of the potential clients requesting assistance from an LSC grantee were turned away for lack of resources on the part of the program;
- The LSC Strategic Directions 2006-2010, which calls upon LSC to increase public awareness of and support for legal services to low-income persons in order to respond appropriately to more of their legal needs;
- The LSC Performance Criteria, which consider, in evaluating a program's legal representation and other activities intended to benefit the low-income population in its service area, whether that program effectively integrates private attorneys into its work in order to supplement the amount and effectiveness of its representation and other services;
- The Provision for the Delivery of Legal Services Committee of the LSC Board of Directors 2006 meetings, which highlighted the potential, opportunities and challenges of private attorney involvement and determined ways in which this critical resource can be used more effectively by LSC-funded programs as a means to help close the justice gap;
- The unanimous adoption in January 2007 by LSC Board of Directors of a strategic work plan entitled Action Plan for Private Attorney Involvement: Help Close the Justice Gap, Unleash the Power of Pro Bono, which highlights the benefits of engaging private attorneys to help represent clients of LSC-funded programs and describes ways in which the LSC Board and staff will work to expand private attorney involvement.

- The American Bar Association's Model Rule 6.1 and similar state bar rules note the professional responsibility of every lawyer to provide pro bono legal assistance to persons of limited means;

Whereas, in North Carolina:

- The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court has established and leads the Equal Access to Justice Commission which intends "to promote meaningful access to legal representation in the state justice system for all persons regardless of their economic or social condition" and has resolved that each attorney in the state provide at least thirty hours of volunteer assistance to a pro bono program operated by a legal services program in the state;
- The North Carolina Bar Association has established its "4All Campaign" to improve civil legal services by educating its 15,000 members about the critical need for civil legal services and pro bono participation and by directly expanding support for the work of Legal Aid of North Carolina;
- There are fewer than 200 lawyers to serve the legal needs of 3 million eligible clients—and the poverty population is growing;
- Legal services programs turn away about eight clients with meritorious cases for every two accepted for service;

Now, Therefore, Be It Resolved that the Board of Directors of Legal Aid of North Carolina, in an effort to help close the justice gap in North Carolina, supports and encourages private attorney involvement with Legal Aid of North Carolina and will endeavor to:

- Collaborate with other organizations and entities in the state to develop and facilitate educational efforts that demonstrate the extent of the unmet civil legal need and encourage collective responsibility by both public and private entities to help meet this unmet civil legal need;
- Collaborate with other organizations and entities in the state to develop effective strategies for engaging lawyers in pro bono representation and other services that benefit low-income persons;
- Consider including in that collaboration organizations and entities such as local and specialized bar associations, access to justice entities, law firms and corporate law departments, law schools and clinics, government and military law offices, and state and federal courts; and

- Develop strategies that encourage pro bono, including creative recruitment methods and delivery models, attorney practice and continuing legal education rules, and training, mentoring, support, and recognition of volunteers.

Be it Further Resolved that the Board of Directors of Legal Aid of North Carolina will promote, support and encourage private attorney involvement initiatives by publicizing and recognizing private attorney involvement in the work of the program and by collaborating with national, state and local organizations to create opportunities for such publicity and recognition.

Adopted by the Board of Directors of Legal Aid of North Carolina on June 15, 2007.

Glenn Barfield, Board Chair